Awakening...reckoning beckoning!

Sushmita Mukherjee
Author and freelance editor

The moment of awakening,
Is, the moment of reckoning,
Truth beckoning,
Not for any retribution,
As such is not the intention,
Of life, ever-affirming....

Beckoning it is,
By and of all that there is...
Our very own being,
Calling,
To the truth of calling,
The truth, calling....

Awakening,
Is, the moment of reckoning,
That each being
Comes into being,
For...
For finally agreeing....

Yes...awakening is an agreement,
To accept the permanent,
Letting go of the transient;

It is an agreement,
That we made,
Before coming into being, as sentient.

So...till the agreement is remembered,
Events are courted,
Presenting the experiences of being dismembered:
Pains abounding with their embers,
Life rendered a choking chamber,
Which, we no longer wish to court....

In pain, unbearable,
Physical, emotional, and all...
We cry out,
The outcry palpable,
The raised hue and cry,
As in all directions fly....

It is the cry of the hue,
The expression true,
That we are...
Of the Source...
Which cries out,
To come out....

Thus, however much the fuss,
Final is the outcome,

The inevitable...

The awakening,

The moment,

Relieving all torments....

Awakening to the true hue,

There is none to sue,

As is realized,

So is:

The onus is on us,

To be the truth that beckons....

It is on us to stand up,

As the truth,

Being the truth,

The superficial no longer reckoned,

Awakened,

To the truth, the real....

Let there be no illusions,

No resistance to truth of existence,

To the truth of drawn manifestations:

Moment of awakening, reckoning,

To the truth of being, true calling

Has been the eternal beckoning....

Led we are thus, to the moment,

With the sole comment,

“I do,”

To the sole commitment,

Made, to being,

“That I Am....”

Biographical Details:

Sushmita is an author, a writer, and a freelance editor. Before entering the all-encompassing arena of writing, she taught Organic Chemistry in college for close to eight and half years—having completed her Masters with specialization in Organic Chemistry and after qualifying in the National Eligibility Test (NET), conducted jointly by the UGC and CSIR. She resigned from college in August 2012. Writing always has been her passion, and in due course, it has been realized and embraced as more than passion: Calling.

Her first book, published in August 2017, is Why Happens, What Happens... It is Chemistry, in Life's Laboratory! Along with, her writings are shared and musings aired, humbly, on <http://fruitsofintrospection.blogspot.in/> and <https://sphilosopher.wordpress.com/> besides other public domains. Grateful is the author to the e-magazines, Spiritual Lounge and Imantra, and the UGC-approved literary journal, Muse India, for publishing the articles by the author, facilitating the sharing, forwarding a writer's all-encompassing journey.
