

AboutUs: <http://www.the-criterion.com/about/>

Archive: <http://www.the-criterion.com/archive/>

ContactUs: <http://www.the-criterion.com/contact/>

EditorialBoard: <http://www.the-criterion.com/editorial-board/>

Submission: <http://www.the-criterion.com/submission/>

FAQ: <http://www.the-criterion.com/fa/>

ISSN 2278-9529

Galaxy: International Multidisciplinary Research Journal
www.galaxyimrj.com

The Unspoken

Shani K. Meeran

PhD Scholar,

Department of English,

Sree Sankaracharya University of Sanskrit,

Kalady -683574

That rainy afternoon in the exam hall
She was made to sit beside her crush
On the bench near window
It poured heavily throughout
Its sprays wetting them at times
Nothing spoken between them except a word or two
No glances exchanged
Her rising heartbeats found its expression
On the exam paper
As if all the suppressed feelings confessed at once
The rain and exam ended together
When the results came
Her paper was labelled the best
She realised how the epics were made...

About the Poet:

Shani K. Meeran is PhD Scholar with JRF, in the Department of English at Sree Sankaracharya University of Sanskrit, Kalady. Her research area is Ecocriticism. Her PhD Thesis is about the reflections on ecological issues across cultures. The author's other areas of interest include Cultural Studies, Gender Studies, Indian English Literature and Postcolonialism. She is an aspiring academician and poet. She has presented papers at national and international seminars and has published articles to her credit.