Hearts In Harmony
Dedicated to my last Five (A Mere Misuse)

Dr. A. Arun Daves

When the bell tolls, they gather round,
Five gentle souls in laughter bound.
Each with a spirit that shines so bright,
In school's embrace, they find their light.

NJ, the healer, with charm and cheer,
Turns sorrow to smiles, banishing fear.
A gentle witch with laughter's power,
Lifting hearts in a fragile hour.

Then sprightly A, the twin of the breeze,
Nature's own voice in whispers and trees.
Bold in her spirit, fierce in her mind,
A soul untamed and one of a kind.

And Two's little toys, both Three and Four,
They giggle and laugh, though weary and sore.
In playful trials, with pains concealed,
Their joy remains their strongest shield.

The smallest doll, dear little Five,
Among the four keeps wonder alive.
Cherished and teased with love so sweet,
She's their heart and their light complete.

Then enters their guide, their mentor wise,
With a knowing glance and steady eyes.
They spar and jest, they tease and test,
But he replies with wit at best.

“Why question life, or sorrow's lore?
Stay young at heart, be children more.”
They laugh and learn, and in his care,
Find warmth and wisdom beyond compare.
